Lane Fletcher - Background

Overview

Lane Fletcher, one of the founders of the firm, focuses on insurance defense, insurance coverage, and commercial and business litigation. He represents a wide array of entities from Fortune 500 companies and international conglomerates to community associations and small companies in state and federal courts throughout Texas and beyond. Lane counsels insurance companies and policyholders regarding coverage afforded by insurance policies. Drawing on his accounting background, Lane also assists clients in crafting options for resolution of business and commercial disputes beyond litigation.
